3. Claims 10-14, 28-32 and 39-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over AvantGo Server Administration Guide (AvantGo) in view of Boyd et al., (WO 98/38614).

AvantGo Server Administration Guide was cited by applicant.

AvantGo taught the invention (claims 10, 28, and 39) substantially as claimed including collecting information about the channels (page 69) and enabling the provider to access a web site using a password protected mechanism (pages 16-18).

AvantGo did not expressly teach displaying subscriber and usage information relating to the provider. This is taught by Boyd et al. (Boyd et al. page 1, lines 16-24 and page 7, line 14 – page 8, line 9 and page 5, line 33- page 6, line 33). It would have been obvious to combine these references for the reason set forth by Boyd et al. on page 1, lines 23-24).

As to claims 29 and 11, the combined teaching set forth subscriber information includes one or more of the number of users that are currently subscribed to a channel, the number of users that subscribe to the channel via default placement, featured placement, or access from a subscriber's own web site, the number of users who actually use the channel, information regarding the usage of the channel, trend information, zip codes, email addresses, and home addresses of the subscribers, and the type of devices used by the subscribers (particularly Boyd et al. page 1, lines 16-24 and page 7, line 14 – page 8, line 9 and page 5, line 33- page 6, line 33).

As to claims 30 and 12, the combined teaching set forth said usage information includes one or more of the number of people actively using the channel and the time period of use, wherein usage information is characterized according to one or more of geographic location of users, device type of users, and method of access by users (particularly Boyd et al. page 1, lines 16-24 and page 7, line 14 – page 8, line 9 and page 5, line 33- page 6, line 33).

As to claims 31 and 13, wherein said channel tracking information is displayed in the form of a canned report (Boyd et al., page 5, line 33 – page 6, line 33, particularly lines 9-13).

As to claims 32 and 14, wherein said channel tracking information is displayed in a form defined by the provider report (Boyd et al., page 5, line 33 – page 6, line 33, particularly lines 9-13).

The following claim merely add fees to the existing operation of the claims, Official Notices is taken, that charges fee for services or access rights is well known in the art, as is evidenced by applicant enable of this element by a suggestion to do.
